

Visual Arts

Visual Arts programming at the Wilson Center is bustling. Current programs include exhibitions in the Ploch Art Gallery and Education Wing Gallery, the Hidden River Art Festival, and studio art classes. Opportunities exist for all ages to engage in the arts.

Upcoming in the Ploch Art Gallery:

The League of Milwaukee Artists

Juried Member Exhibition: June 1-July 29
Reception: Thursday, July 7, 5:30-7:00 pm

The League of Milwaukee Artists represents 150 Milwaukee area artists and has been an active organization for more than 60 years. The subjects and styles of artwork are wide ranging and represent the diversity to be found in Milwaukee.

Virtue by J.J. Joyce (oil on canvas; 24" X 36")

Katie Musolff

September 2-October 23, 2011

Reception: Friday, September 30, 6:30-8:00 pm

Katie Musolff's oil paintings and drawings present a study of multiple subjects, including figures, fish, and botanicals. Musolff reveals a delicate sensitivity in painting as well as her observations of life.

Upcoming in the Education Wing Gallery:

Student Work through June 2011

View student work from the class Learn to Draw what you See. While learning about portraiture and facial proportions, students took turns drawing one another and created a beautiful series of portraiture!

Work by Katie Musolff

Wisconsin Art Teachers

July 18-August 26

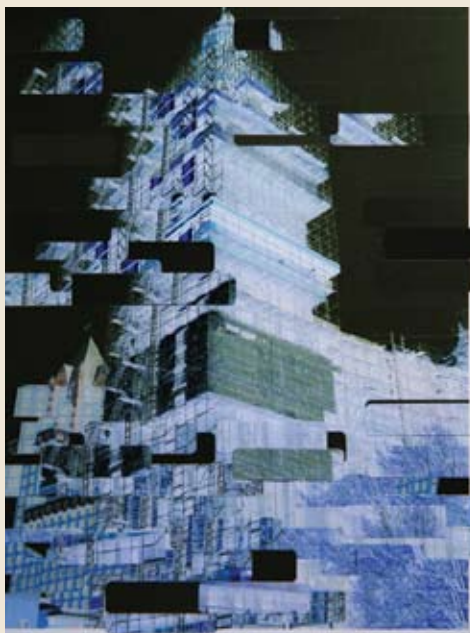

View the work of several area art teachers. Drawing, painting, print, and mixed media work will be on display, showcasing the local talent that inspires future artists.

Ploch Season presented by

Gallery hours:

Monday-Saturday, 9:00 am-5:00 pm

Work by Dean Valadez

Wilson Center Wish List

In addition to your financial support, the Wilson Center always appreciates in-kind donations. Below is a list of items currently on our wish list. Please remember all donations are tax-deductible.

Art Studio

- Storage cabinet for supplies with pull-out bins
- Full-sized skeleton for figure drawing classes
- Artist brushes, paints, pencils, and paper
- Clip lights for drawing easels

Backstage

- Clear-Com wireless headset system for stage communication
- Large projector for presentations with both a long and short throw lens
- Resurfacing of Dawes Studio Theater and Multi-purpose
- Truck or cargo van
- New soft goods for auditorium
- Full-length free-standing mirrors for dressing rooms

The Wilson Center's technical area is in need of your help. We are currently accepting any monetary donations to support the purchase of upgraded sound and lighting equipment for use in the Kuttemperoor Auditorium. Call Chris Blad, Technical Director (262) 781-9470 x5030 with any questions you have about specific equipment.